Dear Mom & Dad,

I'm enclosing an interest check. We're still waiting for our furniture - the fellow called today and said it won't be here until the next shipment from Hong Kong - about four weeks. We've been waiting for six months and might as well wait a little longer.

We had a good time in Princeton. On Sunday we drove up to New York and ate in Chinatown. Then we went to a play in Greenwich Village. Mike works in New York, but doesn't know the city very well. We considered walking to the play but I remembered that the route would take us through the Bowery so we took the subway. It was a good idea since during the taxi ride back to Chinatown we saw roaming drunkards and thugs - an extremely run-down part of the city. We much prefer Washington!

I have talked to a fellow about jobs in Los Alamos, N.M., but the chances of going are very small.

Received your letter and hope my package has arrived. The warm weather is here: 90° yesterday but still not as humid as summer -

Love, Jim & Vickie
